Event Report: Cleanliness Drive and Beautification Programme

Date: 23.09.2025

Venue: College Auditorium

Organisers: National Service Scheme (NSS),

Unit-I, Shamshul Haque Memorial Teacher Training College, Chhota Ambona and Shamshul Haque Evening Degree College, Chhota Ambona

On the occasion of National Service Scheme (NSS) Day, a “Cleanliness Drive and Beautification Programme” was organised on 24th September 2025 at Chhota Ambona Railway Station, Dhanbad. The students and faculty members of Shamshul Haque Memorial Teacher Training College, Chhota Ambona and Shamshul Haque Evening Degree College, Chhota Ambona jointly and actively participated in this noble initiative.

On this occasion, Station Manager Mr. Dev Burman and Station Master Mr. Deepak were presented with saplings, thereby emphasising the importance of beautification and a green environment. The primary objective of the programme was to ensure cleanliness in the railway station premises and to spread awareness about environmental protection.

The students carried out cleaning activities at the station premises and sensitised the passengers present there to maintain cleanliness. The faculty members also extended their cooperation and, with collective effort, pledged to keep the station clean and attractive.

This programme truly reflected the spirit of NSS, which ensures youth participation in social service and activities of national importance.

In conclusion, the NSS Coordinator appreciated the enthusiasm of all participants and extended gratitude to the station authorities for their support.

Photographic Evidence

We submitted a request letter to the Station Manager, and after receiving the permission, we conducted the cleanliness drive at the station.
